To Whom It May Concern,

My name is Sudheer [REDACTED] and I own five hotels in Albuquerque, NM. We had our roofs replaced at three of our locations; Travelodge Midtown, Super 8 Midtown, and Super 8 West. After shopping around aggressively we settled with Jesse and TBC Contractors because of their outstanding reputation here in Albuquerque. Still, I was surprised at the level of service provided, but mostly with the speed in which the jobs were completed. Like an orchestra, his guys tore off and laid down nearly eight football fields of shingle roof in a combined two weeks across three locations. In addition to the roof replacement, large lighted signs had to be removed and reinstalled with a gantry crane to gain full access to the roof. Still, Jesse and his guys had time to help me personally wrestle a 2 ton water heater I was installing during his work on the roof.

Our situation was somewhat unique in that payment for the roof did not come directly from us. This was an insurance claim made through our loan servicer. Funds were not released to us until inspections passed, and checks mailed from various agencies involved. TBC Contractors not only acted as our roof contractor, but also as our liaison between the city inspectors, loan inspectors, and insurance adjusters (plus a surprise visit from OSHA). All I had to do was check with Jesse to make sure that the inspections went well after the work was completed. For as quick as the work was completed, Jesse and TBC Contractors graciously waited nearly a month for payment to be made in full. I cannot recommend them more highly for roof work.

If you have any questions regarding the contents of the letter, please do not hesitate to call me directly at [REDACTED]
